WASHINGTON STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

2026 Supplemental Session

Operating Budget ($6.8M for FY27)

Maintain $13.7M biennial operational funding for the Washington State Historical Society

Capital Budget ($1.1M for FY27)

Accessibility improvements ($375K) and HVAC system repairs ($780K) for the Washington State History Museum in Tacoma

---

THIS IS NATIVE LAND

A new, permanent exhibition that explains the sovereign status of Tribes, confronts historic and current challenges faced by Native communities, and explores themes of resilience, joy, and cultural revitalization.

WASHINGTON STATE AMERICA'S 250TH

As we commemorate 250 years since the Declaration of Independence, we invite Washingtonians to reflect on the principles of our democracy and strengthen their communities by sharing and supporting local history.

Nicholas Vann, Interim Director | 253-954-0486 | nicholas.vann@wshs.wa.gov